Each island's soil, climate, and traditional sugar-making methods give its Okinawa Kokuto a unique color, shape, aroma, flavor, and texture. We hope you enjoy this event, held in cooperation with shops along Kokusai-dori, where you can experience the distinctive characteristics of Okinawa Kokuto.

What Is Kuro (Black) Day on September 6?

The Okinawa Non-Centrifugal Sugar Council designates the period from May 10, Kokuto Day, through September 6, Kuro (Black) Day, as the Okinawa Kokuto sales promotion period. This event is held in the hope that Kuro Day will help more people discover the appeal of Okinawa Kokuto.
